MEETING: AARP does not hold meetings December through March.

Membership in AARP keeps you informed about many issues that impact Americans 65 and older. The following is excerpted from the October-November AARP Magazine and concerns AARP's continuing effort to protect Social Security and Medicare:

In July 2001 AARP's volunteer advocates visited every member of Congress and delivered each a layer cake with one slice missing. The cake represented Medicare's birthday and the missing slice represented the missing prescription benefits, a vital part of any health program. Two years later, in large part due to AARP's advocacy, Congress passed the Part D prescription drug benefit.

Throughout AARP's 67-year history it has worked with every presidential administration regardless of party to strengthen Medicare and Social Security, two programs Americans count on to live a stable and dignified life in retirement. AARP members today are concerned about the future of Social Security and Medicare, and relay those concerns to AARP which is a loud voice for every American over the age of 50. Earlier this year the Social Security Administration threatened to end telephone service for some types of claims. AARP pushed back and the SSA announced that it would continue to handle telephone claims as before. Hold times are still longer than desirable which is a problem AARP is urging Congress to address.

As an AARP member, you are supporting the crucial work through your membership dues. However, if you would like, you can do more to help. AARP invites you to visit aarp.org/ProtectThem. You can send an email on these issues to your congressional representatives and opt in to be notified of future ways to get involved.

MEMBERSHIP: If you are a national AARP member, you can join the local chapter for $5 a year. Why not join now and share the excitement of shaping the years ahead!

OASC Policy

For the safety of all members, our facility is smoke-free, tobacco-free, and alcohol-free. Firearms are prohibited in the Center.

beginning ping pong and line dance, indoor pickleball, health and wellness programs, food and nutrition presentations, and many more.

- Newsletter, website & social media. Each month, members are informed and connected through hours of volunteer time by our media teams who create and manage all three avenues.
- Community connections. Continued outreach into our communities through trade shows, farm markets, chamber activities, Oconomowoc High School students and other organizations letting the entire area know the OASC is the place to be.

Walking into the Center and hearing the laughter and conversations, we are reminded of the warmth, friendliness, and vibrancy that is the OASC. It is so much more than a building. It is a community filled with camaraderie, friendships, and movement as seniors resound with energy and engagement. Perhaps this is the year you take that first step into the Center or expand your current repertoire and consider:

- Trying a new activity or wellness class
- Attending a presentation or social event
- Bringing a friend to the Center
- Traveling with us on a trip
- Or volunteering your time and talents

Every individual who chooses to participate in the programming, along with every visit to the Center, strengthens our community. If you ever need a gentle push and encouragement, give the desk volunteer a call, 262.567.4288. We would love to welcome you!

And the Future?

In September 2025, a Strategic Planning Committee was appointed to review our current plan and help guide the future of the Oconomowoc Area Senior Center through developing a current vision statement, goals, and action plans. While much work remains ahead, we are grateful for the members' dedication and realize the importance of the role this process will play in shaping the future of the OASC. Just as important is that we need to know and understand your perspective. What do you see is in the future of the Center? Please email your thoughts or call Ginni at 414.640.8080. Let's have a conversation!

As we begin a new year together, we wish you good health, joy, friendship, and many new adventures. Stay young, stay active, stay healthy, stay connected, and stay alive!
