

OASC News and Notes

The OASC is a welcoming gathering place offering educational, recreational, social, and wellness opportunities that support and enrich seniors.

Notes From President Ginni Hicks

August is the last full month of summer, and hopefully you've had a chance to soak up some of that sunshine. Whether you've been swimming at the beach, walking the trails, enjoying a game of golf, watching your grandchild's baseball game, or simply relaxing on the patio with your morning coffee, summer has a way of filling us up. But when the temperatures climb a little too high (or the mosquitoes decide they're very hungry), join us at the Senior Center.

What is so amazing at the Center isn't just about the activities we offer; it's also about how quickly strangers become friends. Not just the acquaintance type ("Hi, bye, see you next week!"), but the "Hey, wanna catch lunch, grab a cup of coffee, share a conversation, or see a movie?" type. The Center is truly a great place to meet new people in a fun, safe, and vibrant community.

Researchers tell us that staying socially connected is one of the very best things we can do as we age. We definitely don't need a study to convince us of that. We see it every day at the Center. Someone walks in a little unsure, sits down at a table, and before long they're laughing with people who were strangers only an hour earlier.

It's that time of year again. Come join friends, old and new, over a delicious scoop of ice cream complete with your favorite toppings - sauce, sprinkles, and whipped cream.

Bring your smile, your appetite, and have some fun socializing.

You may call the Desk Volunteer at 262.567.4288 with any questions.

Food and Nutrition Please Pass the Maple Syrup! Friday, August 28 1:30 pm

Matt Yunk has been making maple syrup since 2017 with maple trees in Waukesha and Jefferson Counties.

Matt will explain the process of making pure maple syrup, from tapping the trees to bottling the finished syrup. He'll bring along tools and supplies and show how they're used.

This presentation was originally scheduled in January but was cancelled due to our winter storm.

Sign up in the office or call the Desk Volunteer at 262.567.4288.

First, we will discuss a service offered to AARP members called Senior Planet. As the article mentions, each year 800,000 people discover new possibilities through exposure to a number of tech courses that could improve their use of Digital Technology. Another article titled, “What Moves Voters?” should make for an interesting discussion. AARP presents a wide array of information to consider. AARP is a non-partisan organization that does not support individual candidates, makes no campaign contributions, and is focused on areas of importance to those aged 50 and above. BUSINESS MEETING A short meeting will follow the presentation. MEMBERSHIP If you are a national AARP member, you can join the local chapter for $5 a year. The OASC is a welcoming gathering place offering educational, recreational, social, and wellness opportunities that support and enrich seniors. Our new Mission is more than words at the top of a newsletter. It's our promise to you!

The Oconomowoc Area Senior Center has grown to more than 1,000 members, and we are still growing! It is exciting, but it also increases our need for more helping hands. Maybe you would enjoy greeting members at the front desk, helping with setup/cleanup at the luncheon or the fun fundraisers, serving on a committee, or leading or helping with one of the many activities. If anything sounds interesting and fun, give the Center a call (262-567-4288). Let's talk and see where you might fit in!

One last thing . . . we're still dreaming about a larger home for the OASC. So if you know someone who knows someone who knows someone . . . don't keep us a secret! :) We would love to hear about any possibility involving land, a building, or a creative partnership—including a TIF opportunity. One never knows where one conversation might lead.

Oh, and another last thing! Would you like to help with the OASC's future? August is the time of year when the OASC Nominating and Election Committee begins its search for qualified candidates to be elected at the annual November membership meeting. Members have the opportunity to select five individuals they believe are best for our organization's leadership. If you are a member interested in the what, why, when, and how to help lead the OASC from 2027 into the future, please consider serving on the Board. Read page 4 for all the details.

How might you help the OASC? Maybe it's volunteering. Maybe it's serving on a committee. Maybe it's considering a Board position. Whatever it is, there's a place for you at the Center. We are waiting for you and would love a conversation!

Happy dog days of summer! Ginni
